U. S. SIDESTEPS TASK OF KEEPING ORDER IN EUROPE

Senate Adopts Reservation In Connection With Article Ten.

ASSUMES NO OBLIGATION TO GUARANTEE BOUNDARIES

Will Not Bind Nation to Preserve Territories of Other Nations.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The foreign relations committee reservation to Article 10 of the League of Nations covenant, stood today in the senate as a part of the pact in face of President Wilson's declaration that it would cut the heart out of the covenant.

The reservation which has caused exhaustive debate in the senate, was adopted late yesterday by a vote of 46 to 33 in the exact form in which it came from the committee. Four Democrats joined the Republicans in voting to adopt the reservation while the opposition was composed entirely of Democrats.

The senate was in adjournment today on account of the funeral of Senator Martin at Charlottesville, Va., but tomorrow a vote will be called on the proposal presented by Republican Leader Lodge to invoke the cloture rule to limit debate on the whole treaty subject. The Democrats were undecided today as to what action they would take on the proposal as they fear it would prevent them from securing action on their own ratification resolution. They were expected to press for adoption of the Democrats plan to limit debate only on the reservations.

The reservation to Article 10, provides that the United States shall assume no obligations to preserve the territorial integrity or political principles of any other foreign country to interfere in controversies between nations.

COST $190 FOR LOSING CAMPAIGN

Republican Committee Files Expense Account For Recent Election — Candidates File Statements.

A number of the candidates have filed their expense accounts with the board of elections as provided by law. Those who fail to do so by tonight are liable to prosecution by the state.

Among those filed today is that of the Republican committee, which shows its receipts to be $1100 with expenditures of the same amount. It was collected mostly from Republican candidates on the ticket, several contributing $150 each.

Frank Kauber, Republican candidate for councilman-at-large, spent $22.90 to be elected; C. W. Redman, Republican candidate for war councilman, $6.75; R. L. Williams, Democratic candidate for president of the city council, $28.00; J. N. Fugle, Republican candidate for councilman-at-large, $22; Frank A. Dolton, Democratic candidate for municipal judge, $153.90; Clifford Frye, Republican candidate for city auditor, $137.10; Henry C. Aeschert, Democratic candidate for city solicitor, $167.20; Roy Marvin, Republican candidate for city treasurer, $55.55; J. R. Ashbrook, Republican candidate for ward councilman, $12.50; John Duncan, candidate for township trustee, $9.05; M. E. Scott, candidate for township clerk, $8.70; S. R. Warner, candidate for township clerk, $41.90.

The greater part of the money was spent in newspaper advertising and for personal cards announcing candidates.

UNAUTHORIZED STRIKES DELAY MINE OPENINGS

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 14.—Three unauthorized strikes were preventing miners from returning to work in 10 coal mines in the Kanawha field today. This statement was made by the Kanawha Coal Operators association after the reports for the morning had been tabulated.

More than 600 miners in the little Coal River district were said to be in open rebellion against their leaders, closing gas mines and, according to the report, preventing other miners from working.

Milburn and Ramadge miners voted to stay away from the mines, until a new wage agreement had been signed.

From other districts reports reached the Kanawha association that men were slowly returning to work, and approximately 50 per cent of the union mines were in operation. Point Creek reported that about half the pits there were turning out coal.

Federal troops will probably be sent out of the state Monday, it was said at Governor Cornwell's office.

THE WOMAN WHO FED ENGLAND.

Eleanor Hopwood.

Here is the woman who was called upon to act as food administrator during the recent railway strike in England. Though most feminine in appearance, Eleanor Hopwood proved during the strike that she possessed in abundance certain qualities that some misguided males had hitherto considered purely masculine. She has long been assistant commissioner in the ministry of food and was previously secretary to a large commercial firm.

DRIVES AUTO HEAD-ON INTO STREET CAR; DRIVER IS INSTANTLY KILLED

U. G. Gregg Is Victim of Unusual Accident in East Newark—Impact Hurts Automobile onto Sidewalk—Victim's Skull is Crushed and Face Badly Lacerated.

Ulysses G. Gregg, aged 55 years, met instant death Thursday evening about 5 o'clock when he drove his automobile into an eastbound city car about 100 feet east of Mill street in Main street. It was stated at the Ohio Electric station this morning that the car, an extra, in charge of Motorman William Robinson, Twelfth street, and Conductor George Jacobs, Mahoning street, left the square at 4:55. Gregg was driving his car west astride the rail. Robinson said that he saw the car coming toward him and expected every minute that the driver would run out of the way.

His attention was drawn away for a minute and when he looked again the street car was almost on the machine. The motorman tried to get the car stopped, but it was too late.

The machine was hurled to the north side of the street on the walk and Gregg was found dead, sitting in the seat. The left side of his face was crushed and also the skull. There was a deep gash from the head to his chin which possibly came from the flying glass in the wind shield. The front of the machine was badly damaged and the step of the street car torn off and one side of the fender knocked off. There was a broken trolley at Cedar street at the time of the accident and the line car was working there. Two other cars were in the Metcals siding, waiting for the tripper to pass. One of the crew stated that when Gregg passed them he was going at a good rate of speed.

Gregg formerly operated a saloon at 292 West Main street. Surviving are his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Ada Pyge, four sons, Henry, Willard and Orville at the home, 72 Madison avenue, and Jesse who lives in Illinois. Another son, Earl, died with influenza last winter.

Criss Brothers ambulance removed the body to their morgue where it is viewed by Coroner Richards, who rendered a verdict of accidental death by being struck by a street car.

The body was removed to the home in Madison avenue this afternoon. Funeral services will be held Monday. The time has not been set.

OHIO DRY WORKER SHOWN GOOD TIME

Declares He Enjoyed "Students' Pranks" in London When He Attempts to Make Dry Speech.

London, Nov. 14.—William E. Johnson of Westerville, Ohio, the American prohibition worker and Anti-Saloon League organizer, who yesterday was dragged from a platform and badly handled by the crowd while making a prohibition speech, discussed his experience with a reporter today. He admitted that when he was first attacked he attempted to fight off the crowd but that when he found it was only a students' prank he entered the fun and enjoyed himself.

"The boys were alright," Mr. Johnson declared. "The police handled the situation well. If they had tried to force things a lot of people might have been hurt. I am sending this message to the students:

"You had a good time. I had a good time. I have no complaints, but if you can get into the game against the greatest enemy of the human race—drink."

Johnson hopes when the injury to his eye is better, to visit the college and address the students.

The injury to Mr. Johnson's eye is said to have been caused by a missile thrown by an unknown person. He was taken to a hospital today after an oculist had found the lens of the injured eye to be dislocated. The oculist ordered that Mr. Johnson be kept quiet until the extent of his injuries had been ascertained.

BUTTER MAKERS EVADE FEDERAL STANDARDS

Washington, Nov. 14.—Despite the high price charged for butter, consumers are in many cases getting large percentages of water, salt and coloring matters, officials of the bureau of chemistry, agriculture department announced today. Several shipments of inferior butter have been seized recently under the federal food and drugs act, the statement said.

Federal standards require that butter shall contain not less than 82.5 per cent milk fat, yet all the butter seized, it was declared, contained less than 80 per cent with a corresponding increase in the percentage of water, salt and coloring matters.

A municipal store handling a line of various articles secured by Mayor R. A. Acheson from the army surplus depot at Columbus will be opened in the old Swisher building in West Main street next week, the mayor having ordered three car loads of goods.

The consignment will include two kinds of blankets, hip boots, scrub brushes, ash cans, summer and winter underwear, Jersey gloves, camp kettles, combination overalls, socks, bath and huck towels, vegetables, all kinds of spices, extracts for flavoring and numerous other articles.

The store will be under the management of the mayor and 15 clerks will be employed to assist him. The hours will be from 8:30 to 5 o'clock in the evening. The goods may get in Wednesday and it will take at least a day to unload the cars and arrange the stock.

WANTS BOARD TO SETTLE DISPUTES WITH RAIL MEN

Believes Practical Men From Industry Can Adjust Differences.

LABOR ENDORSES SWEET'S BILL FOR RAIL CONTROL

House Members Get Many Telegrams Approving Proposed Law.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Advocates of the plan offered by Representative Sweet, Republican, Iowa, for voluntary conciliation of labor disputes, to be written into permanent railway legislation were vigorously applauded today when the house resumed debate on the bill. Telegrams endorsing the plan had been received by many members from union men.

Explaining his proposal, representative Sweet said it would write into law the machinery employed before federal control of the roads, with an added commission representative of both employers and employees to consider appeals and with no penalties against strikes and lockouts.

"Let the practical men from this industry settle their own disputes," declared Representative Nolan, Republican, California, a labor union member supporting the plan.

For 25 years before federal control the men and their employees successfully settled their own troubles.

ASK HIGH COURT TO PASS ON VOTE

Defeat of Dry Ratification Act Will Be Taken to U. S. Supreme Court.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Validity of the Ohio constitutional referendum amendment under which the federal constitutional prohibition amendment was submitted to the electorate of that state last week and defeated by them.

George S. Burke, an attorney of Cincinnati filed appeals with the court today in proceedings brought by him to stop the state from carrying out the amendment to the federal union suffrage constitutional amendment to the voters. The lower court upheld the constitutionality of the Ohio amendment.

FLU BREAKS OUT IN YOUNGSTOWN MILLS

Youngstown, Nov. 14.—Spanish influenza has broken out among workmen living in steel mills here on account of the steel strike according to announcement by Youngstown hospital officials today who said that six cases had been taken to the hospital from the Ohio works of the Carnegie Steel company and three from the Brier Hill Steel company. Several hundred men have been living in each plant during the eight weeks of the strike.

REFUSES TO ENJOIN DRY ENFORCEMENT

New York, Nov. 14.—Federal Judge Learned Hand refused today to grant injunction restraining enforcement of the Volstead prohibition act.

BROWNIE'S GUN BAGS BIG GAME

Finds Italian, Prowling Through Hotel Corridors and Police Scent Clue to Theft in Columbus.

Warren Brown, better known as "Brownie," night manager of the Hotel Seltzer in South Second street, had an experience last night when he heard a noise coming from the third floor of the hotel after midnight. Securing his revolver Brownie went up on the third floor and saw a man trying to open the doors of the rooms. Brownie pulled his gun and called "hands up," and the fellow readily complied. Brownie marched him to the first floor and calling a guest had him keep the fellow covered until the police could be called when he was taken to the police station where he is being held as a suspect in a robbery at Columbus, O.

Chief of Police James Sheridan called up Columbus police officials and requested them to trace up the goods. The fellow will be held until an investigation can be made. He is an Italian and speaks fairly good English.

INDIANA MINERS IGNORE STRIKE RECALL

Joliet, Ind., Nov. 14.—Miners in the Wilmington coal fields at meetings last night voted to ignore the strike recall and will remain idle until settlement is made of the demands on the operators. They also refuse to allow maintenance men in the mines to stay on duty.

857 SOLDIERS PROPOSED TO THEM.

The Kouns sisters, Sarah, at left, and Nellie.

Girls, you should all have been in the A. E. F. Here are two sisters who were, and they hung up a record of having received 857 proposals of marriage, including ones from Frenchmen, Belgians, Britons, Russians and Americans. They are Sarah and Nellie Kouns of Topeka, Kan., who have just returned from long service in France in welfare service. Sarah received 422 proposals, Nellie 435. Having rejected the offers of nearly a thousand men to become brides they hurried home to give the "once over" to the seventeen-year-old bride of their brother; and they "can hardly wait" to see her.

FEARING MOB VIOLENCE, WESTERN POLICE NEGROES TAKEN AWAY

Wilmington, Delaware, Nov. 14.—Fearing enraged citizens might attempt to lynch three negroes charged with murdering one policeman and robbing a mortuary, police last night rushed the prisoners to Philadelphia.

The negroes, Lemuel, James and John Price, brothers, are being held in central police station.

Wilmington is quiet today. Police have been instructed to prevent the assembling of crowds.

The murdered policeman was Thomas L. Zebly. Harry C. Pierce, the wounded policeman, was shot three times and is not expected to live. The shooting occurred when the two patrolmen went to the Price home to investigate the stealing last week of scores of guns from a gun store. The guns had been pawned in this city.

SEEK TO PLACE BLAME FOR RIOTS

Authorities at Centralia, Wash., Trying to Learn Who Started Riot Resulting in Four Deaths.

Centralia, Wash., Nov. 14.—Efforts of officers charged with the duty of prosecuting the 26 alleged members of the Industrial Workers of the World held in jail here and at Chehalis in connection with the shooting to death of four American Legion members during an armistice day parade Tuesday, were centered today on learning whether former soldiers in any degree provoked the attack by leaving the line of march to force their way into the I. W. W. inferno given last night.

The inquest over the four victims of the shooting differed. After the patriotic parade was broken up by the I. W. W. fanatics, reports were current that several members of the Legion had started toward the hall used as headquarters by the radicals before any shots were fired. This version later was denied and investigators reported finding evidence leading to show that the attack by the I. W. W. was prearranged.

Dr. Frank Blackford, himself a marcher in the parade, testified at the inquest that some one near him in the line saw that some one near him in the line saw the line came to a halt at the corner where the building stands.

GRANGE DELAYS ACTION ON LABOR ALLIANCE

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 14.—With the stand of the national grange on the question of an alliance with labor put over for consideration next week and other important matters, including the organization's attitude toward the Townsend national road roads bill, in the hands of committee, the convention confined its business activities today to one brief session. TAXATION FIGHT COST $11,000. Columbus, Nov. 14.—The Ohio Home Protective League's recent successful fight on classification in the state coat that organization $11,000, according to a statement filed Friday with the secretary of state. Receipts totaled $12,419.64, leaving a balance of $948.71.

NON-UNION MINE OWNERS MAY NOT ENTER WAGE MEET

Fear Such Action Might Look Like Recognition of Unions.

SUCCESS OF CONFERENCE IS UP TO PARTICIPANTS

Garfield Says They Must Come Into Parley Open-Minded.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Holding that their participation might be construed as acceptance of the union principle, operators of non-union coal mines outside of the central competitive field announced here today after a conference that they probably would not accept the invitation of Secretary Wilson to take part in the conference between union miners and operators to begin today.

Success of the conference between coal miners and operators, called by Secretary Wilson and begun here today in an effort to bring peace to the bituminous coal industry, depends on all parties coming into the parley "without commitments," Fuel Administrator Garfield said today.

Dr. Garfield arrived here this morning at the invitation of Secretary Wilson, who desires his assistance in the conference, which will begin this afternoon with labor secretary presiding. Although the strike of miners has been called off, Dr. Garfield retains all of the war of nerves which the president again conferred on him when the strike was called.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, and the union scale committee and other union officials arrived here today. Most of the operators' representatives reached town yesterday.

The conference opened at 2:30 this afternoon, Secretary of Labor Wilson acting as mediator, hoped a lasting settlement would be reached of the differences which led to the recent coal strike. Garfield will act in an advisory capacity although exactly what part he will play in the proceedings has not been announced.

The question of the time of the expiration of the Washington wage agreement of 1918 still was a subject of dispute, and it was believed the views of Mr. Garfield on this point would be sought.

The demands of the miners for 60 per cent increase in pay, and shorter working hours were the other issues, and both the miners and operators have indicated their willingness to accept a reasonable adjustment of their differences and bring about harmony within their ranks.

VETERANS SEND SYMPATHY NOTE

Newark Post Adopts Resolution of Sympathy For Centralia Post Which Loses Men by Assassination.

A meeting of the newly formed American Legion was held in G. A. R. hall last evening with about 100 ex-service men present. Much business was transacted.

A handsome flag was presented the Legion by the Daughters of Veterans. The various bonus bills were read and the House Bill No. 203, also known as the "Reckless" bill was endorsed. It provides for the suspension of shell-shocked patients from their income at state hospitals. The Sweet bill was also endorsed and which provides for reinstatement of war risk insurance, and also permits changing of beneficiaries.

A letter of sympathy to Centralia Post in Washington was authorized expressing sympathy for the death of the soldiers in the armistice day celebration Tuesday, who were shot down by members of the I. W. W.

A committee of five men, Frederick Slater as chairman was appointed to assist in the planting of two trees in the court house park on Thanksgiving day, honoring the soldier and sailor dead in the late world war. The trees will be planted in the city square. It is possible that the entire membership of the legion will assist in whatever program is arranged for the day.

Max Norrell, Joseph Dolan and Charles Norrell were appointed as members of the county committee. The first meeting will be held in the future instead of one and each second meeting will be a social affair. A smoker will be held in two weeks and a pleasing program will be an entertainment arranged. It will be an open meeting for all ex-service men.

PRINCE OF WALES VISITS VICE PRESIDENT

Washington, Nov. 14.—The only event on the official program of the Prince of Wales today, the last day of his stay in Washington, was a visit to Mrs. Marshall, the wife of the vice president. Immediately afterwards he was to leave by train for Annapolis, where arrangements had been made for him to inspect the naval cadets. The night the prince will leave Washington for a three-day stay at a southern winter resort. He will travel strictly incognito and will make no further public appearance until he arrives in New York next Tuesday.

ORE CARRIER WRECKED. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Nov. 14.—From reports of wreckage off Manitou Island at the tip of Keweenaw Point, it is feared the big ore carrier, John Owen, reported overdue, was lost in the heavy gale that has raged over Lake Superior throughout the week.

Four provisions of the bill dealing with control for carriers both during the periods immediately following government control and afterward were approved yesterday by the house.

10 COMPANIES ARE OPERATING NOW IN LICKING OIL FIELD

More Than 50 Wells Are Now Being Drilled In County.

TEST NEW TERRITORY ON FRANKLIN TOWNSHIP FARM

Oil Men Watch With Interest Result of Well on Smith Farm.

Ten oil and gas companies are now operating in Licking county and not less than 50 wells are drilling at the present time. Good oil strikes on the A. R. Crawford farm and at other points in the county recently have stimulated interest in the oil game so that there is much activity in leasing and in preparation for further development throughout the whole territory.

The companies that are now busy in the field which promises to be a second Bremen, are Ohio Cities, Ohio Fuel, Everett, Halsey, Logan, Leonard, Sun, Whitehill and Hessler Emerald Petroleum and Ralph Brothers.

In Fallsburg township practically the entire territory has been leased. In that township 21 wells are drilling or ready to drill and four are already producing oil. The 225 barrel well on the Guy McDonald place which came in two months ago is now flowing 75 barrels.

The Crawford well, which was shot Tuesday afternoon and flowed 255 barrels the first 24 hours, is on a 300-acre farm which is held by the Ohio Cities. This company has another location started and will lose no time in developing the whole tract.

A well has been started on the Allen Smith farm in Franklin township and is now 100 feet deep. As this is new territory the result is being watched with no little interest.

ASKS GAS RATE REFERENDUM.
Coshocton, Nov. 14.—Coshocton consumers of natural gas will not pay the 7 cents a thousand increase and 25 cents surcharge demanded by the Coshocton Gas company and granted by the city council. A petition for a referendum vote on the compromise ordinance was filed yesterday with the county board of elections. The vote will be taken in November 1920. In the meantime gas consumers will continue to pay 35 cents a thousand and no surcharge.

SHOOT WELL TODAY.
The Ohio Cities Gas company is shooting a well on the Shoemaker farm at Black Run this afternoon. The location is about 7 miles from the Crawford well which came in this week.

EMERALD WELL READY.
The Emerald company has a well due to come in on the Robinson farm. This is just next to the Crawford farm.

NEW COMPANY IN FIELD.
The newest company to develop new territory is the Mutual Oil and Gas company of Zanesville which was incorporated in Zanesville today for $50,000. The incorporators are Samuel Frazier and Karl S. Dixon.

Progressing Rapidly.
For the fourth time a new baby had arrived at the home of Robert's sister Nellie. When informed of the event one of his aunts told him in an impressive manner that he was now an uncle for the fourth time. Rather fussed, the little fellow answered: "Goodness me, if things keep on I'll soon be a grandpa."

Birds Driven by Storms.
Certain instances of birds found singly far to the north of their usual range are possibly to be explained by the whirl of cyclonic storms. The wind, turning counter clockwise, blows off shore in the south and carries the bird out to sea. But, sooner or later, if the bird has the good fortune to last out the experience, the farther spin of the storm tends to bring him ashore again.

Turtle Unstops Sewer.
To open a stopped up sewer pipe, Frank Ward of Richmond, Mo., caught a small turtle and cut a small hole in its shell. Then he tied a string in the hole and started the turtle through the sewer pipe. Whenever the turtle stopped a pull on the string started it clawing its way forward again until the pipe was clear.

The Wonderful Congo.
The Congo is the most wonderful system of waterway on the face of the globe. It has twice the extent of the navigable waters of the Mississippi and its tributaries and three times its population. Professor Dupont, once director of the Museum of Natural History at Brussels, said that its fertile valleys were destined to be the granary of the world.

Still Searching for Atlantis.
Phoenician tradition ascribed to the people of Atlantis a high civilization. During the last few years scientific expeditions, in pursuit of natural history "specimens," have made explorations of the sea bottom in that region. How interesting it would be if their drag-nets brought up from the depths some ancient relics from drowned towns of the lost continent.

Her Other Boarder.
Tillie Clinger says that in asking for accommodations at a strange place yesterday she inquired if there were any other boarders. "No," replied the landlady, "unless it's my husband, and he can quit any time he wants to."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

New York: Meeting of national baseball commission called off.

SORCERY GRIPS THE ALASKAN

Natives Formerly Implicitly Believed In Words and Actions of the Shaman.

Shamanism, or superstition and sorcery, always has played an important part in the life of the Alaskan native, says the Chicago Evening Post. So implicitly did the Alaskan of not many years ago believe in the words and actions of the shaman that a whole tribe would go hungry rather than incur his displeasure by eating foods he had tabooed.

The Shaman attained his position and power by unusual methods. By fasting and prayer amid the solitude of the woods or mountains, where he fed only on grasses and roots, he prepared himself to become a shaman. By this method it was believed the candidate's body became sufficiently purified to become the abiding place of spirits.

Usually the spirit, willing to abide with the shaman, sent the novice a land otter, which the candidate killed, the otter's tongue to be preserved as a talisman away from human view. For should it be seen it was believed shaman would go insane or be turned into the animal from which the tongue was taken.

Thus the land otter was regarded as too sacred to be killed by other than shamans.

LOCATIONS OF VOLCANOES

Eruptions Come From Weak Spots on Earth's Crust—Areas Divided in Four Groups.

Volcanoes are located on the weak spots in the earth's crust, scientists say, according to a writer in Leslie's Weekly. These areas are in the ocean basins, the lands bordering these basins, or mountains which flank or construct outlines of continents. These areas are divided into four groups, viz: (1) Pacific-Caribbean belt, following the Andes of South America, the lesser Antilles, Central America, and Mexico, the west coast of North America, Kamchatka, the Japanese Islands, the Philippines, and Sunda Sea Islands, New Zealand and Victoria land, in the Antarctic; (2) the Mediterranean-Caspian region; (3) Atlantic region, including the volcanoes of Iceland and the Azores; (4) the Pacific region, with volcanoes in Polynesia, Hawaiian and other islands. Just why these parts of the earth's crust should be the weak spots has not been convincingly explained.

Apiary Adjunct of the Hospital.
The curious idea of making the apiary an adjunct of the hospital has been suggested. The sting of the bee has long been popularly regarded as a cure for rheumatism, and a British beekeeper has now announced that it is an almost infallible test of the safety of administering anesthetics. The keeping of the bees, therefore, may become necessary as a means of deciding whether surgical operations in certain cases may be performed. If a patient suffers from nervous weakness, a bee sting on the hand may cause a large swelling and affect the glands of the body, and operation is then unsafe.

Finland and Australia.
Finland has discovered Australia, and it is hoped, observes an exchange, that the commonwealth will soon recognize commercially the enterprising new republic. Trade relations with Australia are being sought, and Finland will be glad to exchange cream separators and safety matches, paper pulp and timber for a little of Australia's surplus meat and wheat. The consul of the new republic has established his headquarters in Sydney, New South Wales, and has already obtained excellent publicity. Finland must surely have been studying American methods of production.

Masts Made by Machine.
A machine has been built which will shape masts up to 100 feet in length and three feet in diameter. The timber is set up in the machine and revolved at a speed of 30 revolutions a minute, and it is shaped by a cutter head which is electrically driven at the rate of 700 revolutions a minute. This cutter head is mounted on a carriage, which is moved along the timber against a rail set to give the proper profile to the mast. Heretofore this work has been done by hand and required skilled workmen. At best it has been a slow and laborious task.

Promising Invention.
Those of us who love to wear delicate fabrics, like laces, ruchings, organdies and chiffons, will be very glad if an alleged invention to render such stuffs moisture-proof shall be successful. Some of us have had a heap of trouble with ruchings in our sport shirts. They haven't remained nice and fresh more than four days when the tennis and golf have been good. If now they may be rendered moisture-proof we shall be as happy as the man with the celluloid collar, and exertion will have no terrors for us.—Hartford Courant.

A Bird Colony.
The most remarkable bird colony in the world is on Hat Island, in the Great Salt Lake, Utah. The island is about 12 acres in extent, and the colony is securely located on a rocky pinnacle 100 feet above the brine, with not a drop of fresh water to be found and apparently nothing to attract the birds except the sense of security which the island offers.

Shifting sets and changing climates have taught the sailorman every angle in the combat with weather. Trained to face nature in the open, he is ready for the vagaries whether they be of inland-like peacefulness or the storm-tossed waves of an ocean in all its fury. He knows how to dress to meet every condition, and the Navy not only requires that he be sufficiently clad but that changes of clothes shall be in his sea bag ready to use when he needs them.

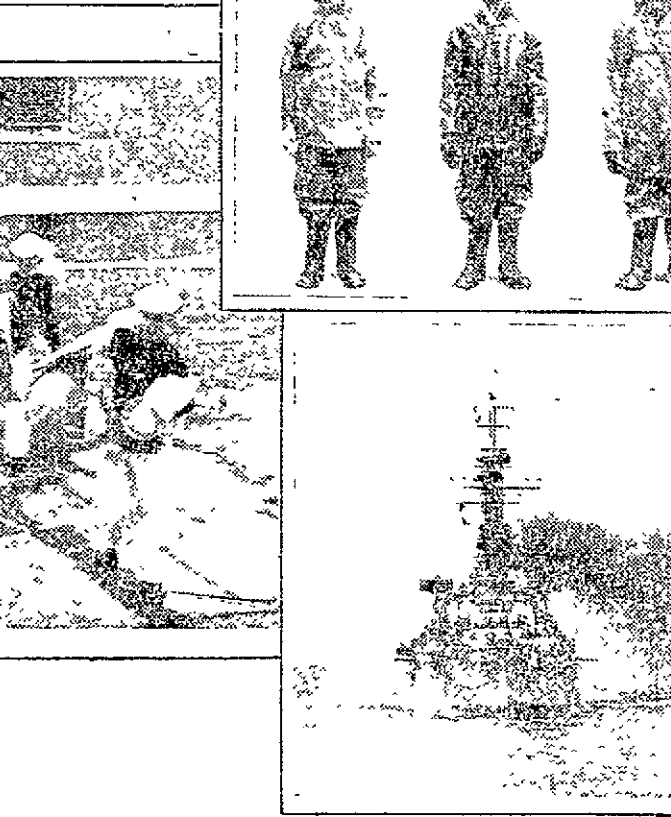

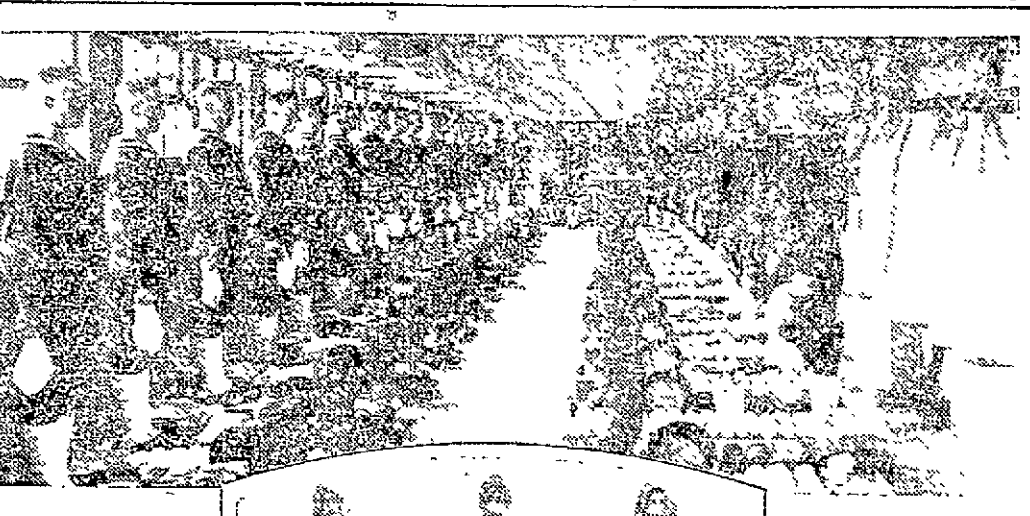

The "goby" lines the cut of his clothes, and there is a roll and jauntyness about him at all times that proclaims him a King. Fashions come and go and others may chafe the habits of the army man, but not so with the man of the sea. His is eternally blue; the pattern never varies and tradition holds her own in their making. Years ago, in the days of the wooden sailing ships, when seamen had to climb masts and dangle on the stretching yards, and to reef and duff in all weathers, for convenience and custom ordered the fish-tailed lower ends of the trousers. Time and the changes in construction of ships have never brought a change.

The sailor also clings to his black silk necktie. Dressed around his neck, tucked blouse and tied across his chest, it leaves a distinction that he belongs to the sea. Litter days have made obsolete the wearing of a white band about the neck but the sailor "fish-tail" remains. Tradition tells that the custom of thus wearing the necktie originated with the British navy, as a mark of mourning for their sailor-king, Lord Nelson. It has never been removed.

The sailor is also a trifle fussy about his hats. He has three of them. No one can exactly explain the mysterious balance a seaman requires in reaching for a circular parade cap on his head, almost any angle. This cap is ornamented with a band bearing the name of his ship or station, or simply the sailor's lower ends of the trousers. The sailor also has a knitted cap for every port, must have souvenirs for the pretty maids he meets, particularly the cap he leaves behind him.

The sailor also has a knitted cap for every port, must have souvenirs for the pretty maids he meets, particularly the cap he leaves behind him.

But of them all, it is his little white hat that he loves the most. With the same skill and nonchalance he perches this on his head—always with the appearance of, but never actually falling off. That he can wash inside the cap there is a little spring by means of which he can hang it out of woad day; this he calls a "stop."

Here is just what a sailor's wardrobe includes: Overshirt, two undershirts, dress jumper, three white undershirts, blue trousers, four white braces, dungarees (overall), jersey, overcoat, rain clothes, two flannel shirts, two each-light and heavy undershirts, two each-light and heavy drawers, one blue cap, two white hats, watch cap, two suits of pajamas, jack knife, leggings, neckerchief, gloves, four pairs socks, two pairs shoes, rubber boots, mattresses, two mattress covers, shoe brush and blacking, pair blankets, towels and one pair gymnasium shoes. Quite a trousseau for the young man now wedded to the sea.

MAYOR NEGLECTS DUTY; IS CHARGE

Governor Cox Files Formal Complaint Against Executive For Failure to Keep Order During Strike.

Columbus, Nov. 14.—Formal charges in support of the suspension of Mayor Charles E. Poorman, of Canton, and on which his final removal from office will be sought were filed by Governor Cox today. The suspended mayor's hearing has been set for November 25 at 10 a.m.

The governor's charge sets out that "alleged that Charles E. Poorman, mayor of Canton, ought to be removed for the following reasons: "Neglect of duty growing out of his failure to maintain order during the steel strike."

A copy of the charge sent to Mr. Poorman notifies him to be present at 10 a.m. November 25 to show cause why he should not be removed from office. The hearing will be before Governor Cox.

YESTERDAY'S RALLIES CONTINUE IN WALL ST.

New York, Nov. 14.—Optimism marked yesterday's operations on the stock exchange, the only reminder of the recent upheaval being found in the maintenance of call loans at the comparatively high rate of 11 per cent.

The rally of yesterday was carried to greater lengths. There were early reversals in some of the more speculative issues, but the market soon strengthened on extensive buying of railroad shares.

The demand for rails at gains of 2 to 7 1/2 points exceeded any movement in that quarter of the list for many weeks and served more than any other feature to restore confidence among investors.

THE HOUSEWIFE—

Experiences of Ohio Woman

Findlay, Ohio.—"My experience with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription during pregnancy has been all that could be desired. I was so weak and sickly that I could scarcely do my own housework for a month before my second child came, and I was nauseated all the time until I started to take 'Favorite Prescription.' The first bottle gave me so much comfort and strength that I decided to continue its use through the entire period. My baby weighed ten pounds and I had practically no suffering, was ill only a little over an hour. This was so entirely different from my first experience that I would never dare go thru pregnancy without the aid of 'Favorite Prescription'."—Mrs. OREAN KADABACH, 516 South St.

Bryan, Ohio.—"I have taken the 'Favorite Prescription' as a special tonic when I was run-down and it was excellent, giving perfect satisfaction. And during the time that my children were small I relied a great deal on Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser for advice when they would become sick, and it saved many spells of sickness in my family and doctor bills, too."—Mrs. HARRIET EASTRICK, Conneaut, Ohio.—"I have the greatest faith in Dr. Pierce's remedies because I took the 'Favorite Prescription' and it was only a short while before I was feeling better and eventually I was cured of my trouble for I never had a recurrence of woman's weakness afterward. I have taken 'Favorite Prescription' since, whenever I have felt the need of a special tonic, and also the 'Frasant' Pills when in need of a laxative, and not once have I been disappointed."—Mrs. FREDERICK FARMER, 404 Washington St.

FIRE DESTROYS FERTILIZER PLANT

Blaze Starts While Men Are Absent at Noon-day Meal and Burns to Ground in Short Time.

The plant of the C. O. Harris fertilizer company, southeast of Newark, was entirely destroyed by fire of unknown origin shortly after noon Thursday. The property loss is estimated at $6,000 with no insurance.

The fire originated less than a half hour after Harris and the other men employed there had left the plant to go to dinner. Before the flames were discovered practically the entire building was enveloped in flames.

Besides the buildings destroyed, new machinery, only recently installed, was completely ruined by the fire.

The insurance policies were allowed lapse during the war and because of the high rate asked by insurance companies to carry fire risk beyond fire protection, they were not renewed.

It was stated this morning that arrangements would be made at once to rebuild the plant.

SELL BOOZE AT $75 PER CASE

Louisville Distillers Defy War Time Prohibition Law to Dispose of Million Gallons of "Floor Stock."

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 14.—Two local distillers sold whiskey openly in Louisville today at $75 a case, regardless of the war time prohibition law. Hundreds of orders, filed before July 1, when the war-time law went into effect, it was said, were being filled by these distillers, which resumed sales following the granting of an injunction to them yesterday by Federal Judge Evans, restraining the government from interfering with sale of nearly a million gallons of "floor stock" whiskey.

The Wright & Taylor and the Brown-Forman companies, which received the temporary injunctions, expected to sell all of their whiskey in a hurry, it was announced. They made their sales, however, with the knowledge that they are liable to prosecution, according to District Attorney W. V. Gregory. If the federal supreme court reverses Judge Evans in a decision it is to make November 20th.

No Kentucky distillers apparently were disposed to ask for injunctions and would wait the supreme court's decision as to the war-time prohibition law's constitutionality before trying to dispose of their whiskey stocks, all of which is said to approximate 40,000,000 gallons.

The case before the supreme court was appealed to it by the government from a previous decision of Judge Evans, who held the war-time law and the enforcement acts were unconstitutional and granted the Kentucky Distillers and Warehouse company an injunction forbidding interference by the government with sale of nearly 60,000,000 gallons of whiskey.

THE OHIO ELECTION.

The usual Republican claim of a "tremendous sweep" followed the municipal elections but the claim was so far-fetched and so utterly devoid of any basis on actual returns that it really became quite amusing.

Following the Republican victory in the congressional elections a year ago the G. O. P. leaders assumed that henceforth the world was theirs and each succeeding election would see them more strongly entrenched in power. The goal they aim at is the Presidency in 1920.

But Ohio gives little comfort to the Republican bosses when the figures are analyzed. The Democrats lost Columbus and a Republican was elected mayor but it was not a G. O. P. victory in any broad sense. The candidacy of a socialist, running as an independent, cut down Karb's vote enough to let Thomas win. In Cleveland there was nothing of national significance in the re-election of Mayor Davis. But through the state, Democratic mayors were elected in many of the leading cities. Democrats were elected in many of the smaller cities and in towns and villages. In addition throughout the vast majority of the townships Democratic candidates were successful. Democratic gains, based on last fall's figures, were tremendous throughout the state. This is so even in cities where Republicans were elected.

The battle of 1920 is now on and the Democracy of Ohio, knowing that its cause is right, faces the future unafraid.

DELAYING THE PEACE.

Republican senators are bent on voting into the treaty of peace reservations that will require its submission to the peace conference. The treaty killers are at work and the wonderful prestige and glory of America—the hope of the small nations of the world are being dimmed by a group of Senators.

Great Britain ratified the treaty. France ratified the treaty. Other nations took similar action without amendment or reservation. Is it not strange that the statesmen of these nations approve the pact and fail to find in it the glaring defect our own esteemed senators profess to have found?

The United States senate, majority continues to play politics with the peace of the world. It has taken the senate longer to act on the treaty than it took the peace conference to gather the information and to prepare it. Yet we were told that Woodrow Wilson was delaying peace last spring. And the end is not yet. With all the nation crying for peace and with unrest everywhere in the land the senate is stubbornly stalling along and taking weeks and months to do what could be done in a few days or weeks at the most.

Killing reservations may be made but the fact remains that the blood of the treaty will be on the hands of Lodge, Borah, Johnson and their followers and it is as certain as the rising of the morning sun that the rank and file of the Republican party will repudiate a leadership with a purpose so contemptible.

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

The national political conventions are now only seven months away. Some of the delegates to these conventions will be chosen very shortly. The country has been so stirred by war issues and economic disturbances, that purely political problems have been somewhat set aside, until they demand immediate attention.

Some politicians used to say that they hoped the opposite party would make the weakest possible nominations, as it thereby increased the chances of their own side. That is a very narrow minded philosophy. When one party puts forward its best man, it forces the other to do the same. Thus it works to advance the standards of all political life and government.

When one party makes an inferior nomination, it helps the self seekers in the other organization to gain their way.

The people want a man of force and decision. Years ago it was often common to nominate for office both high and low, men of a colorless character, on the ground that they had no enemies and had never aroused any antagonisms.

The time for that kind of game has gone by. No man can handle present industrial and economic questions unless he has proved himself one of initiative and leadership. He must be an original and constructive thinker, who can himself take the lead and offer programs for maintaining social order and human advance.

The next president must be a man who has human sympathy, and a strong desire to advance living conditions for the masses of the people. He must be positively committed to law and order and against class dictation. It will take a great man to solve all the problems that the coming term is to present. No one who has not shown himself a big constructive leader can hope to win the next election.

HIGHWAY DANGERS.

There is complaint from automobile drivers of the many danger spots along the highways. Where the road runs closely to the edge of a bank without any guard rail there is always a chance that some one will go down and the car turn over.

Many drivers persist in keeping well to the center of the road when meeting other cars. The machine that is forced out to one side is very apt to skid over such banks if the road is muddy. And sand is an even worse material to skid in.

There are many narrow roads with deep ditches on each side and no protection whatever. Considering the carelessness of many drivers and their disposition to hog the road, it is surprising that there are no more accidents. But as it is, the unprotected bank causes a great many. The careful man will stop his car altogether rather than meet another in a dangerous place.

Ditches along the sides of the road can not be avoided. In a great many places they are necessary for drainage. But they can usually be protected. The ideal way is to erect strong guard rails along steep banks as was done recently at the "Dug Way" between Granville and Newark. If this is considered too expensive, a good protection is created by scraping up a ridge of firm soil at the side of the road. A road ought never to slope into a dangerous ditch.

Whenever roads are built or reconstructed, the plan should include the removal of such perils, which can then be arranged without much additional expense. The present highways were built for horses and wagon travel, and in many localities are not suited to automobile use. Old Dobbin and his buggy never skidded, but motor driving is a new proposition the hazards of which should be considered.

G. O. P. MILEAGE GRAB.

Republican efforts toward economy in national affairs is not to be carried to a point where it effects the pocket-books of congressman and senators. Mileage allowances, at 20c per mile have been provided for G. O. P. Floor Leader Mondell admits, even though congress does not adjourn previous to the regular session on December 1st. Here we have a plain case of tapping the sadly overburdened U. S. treasury for the personal benefit of legislators.

QUAKER QUIPS.

(Philadelphia Record.)
The one thing a man is always eager to share with the world is his good opinion of himself.
Don't tell your troubles, unless you want to get the jump on another fellow who is going to tell his.
It's a good plan to take time by the forelock. Even the worm will sometimes turn before it is trod upon.
Refrain from saying anything that will be a reproach to your own people.
Still, it comes rather late to get a fellow a job.
The fellow who is alive to the fact that he is a dead one proves that while there's life there's hope.
The woman who can no longer afford to keep a cook at least has the satisfaction of knowing that she is now her own boss.
Self-seems to think no man is good enough for her. Well, at that, she may be right. Well, at that, she may be right. Well, at that, she may be right.
Mr. Wigwag—"But what I object to is that you women have no sense of humor." Mrs. Wigwag—"That's exactly explained. No woman wants to laugh and grow fat."

"Two heads are better than one," quoted the Wise Guy. "Yes, a man can always face the world with a good heart, provided he also has a good liver," added the Simple Mug.
Tommy—"Pop, what do we mean by a dog in the manger?" Tommy's Pop—"By a dog in the manger, my son, we mean a fellow who wants a finger in the pie merely to keep anyone else from eating it."

That there are about fifty remarkable stone inclosures in various parts of Scotland known as vitrified Forts? They are generally situated on a small hill overlooking a considerable valley, and consist of a wall which may have originally been about twelve feet in height, inclosing a level area on the summit of the hill. The most remarkable feature of these structures is that the wall is always more or less consolidated by the action of fire.

DEPLETING SWOLLEN FOR-TUNES.
(Cincinnati Enquirer)
So long as society exists as it now is, men variously will regard the benefactions of the rich. Perhaps the feeling at the base of most of the criticisms of great benevolences is one of envy and primal resentment that any one human being, or number of them, should possess in large abundance the things desired by all and which most never can enjoy to any marked degree. But be that as it may, great fortunes exist and their administration evidences a variability of motive and purpose and value which must enlist the interest and attention of the students of psychology and sociology.

Mr. Rockefeller is the possessor of a great fortune. With respect to his methods governing its acquirement we have no present interest. What interests the student of things is what he is doing with it. In this connection his recent gift of $10,000,000 to the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research must be regarded as potential of lasting benefit to the race. It makes the sum of his contributions to the cause of combating disease one formidable and distinguished in the annals of the world's constructive social history.

The Rockefeller Institute already has gained an envied fame throughout the world wherever the development of science in medical research is respected and encouraged. With such financial encouragement and support as it has received and will continue to receive at the hands of Mr. Rockefeller it is not too much to say that it will continue not only to enlarge American scientific prestige, but materially to assist in the conquest of diseases and other human ills which annually demand a greater title than the combined military madness of men expressed in battle.

We can conceive of no worthier way of depleting a great fortune than by devoting it to the welfare of humankind along the lines of scientific betterment, whose guide posts of achievement must be regarded as nobler memorials than any shaft or lordly pyramid set up to preserve the memory of aspiring mortals.

REMEMBERING HIS EMPLOYEES.

(Ohio State Journal)
Columbus is proud of Andrew Dobbin. After a long and honorable experience as a merchant in this town he has sold out and retired from business. While doing so, he has performed a noble service to his faithful employees, who have served him for many years. He has set aside a trust fund of $70,000, the earnings of which are to be distributed among the clerks who have served him the longest. In case of the death of one of the employees the earnings will be distributed among the others. This is certainly a noble act on the part of Mr. Dobbin and it should be a forcible reminder to all employers that there are employers in the world who recognize their fidelity and remember them in rewards of substantial worth. It is a grand thing that these happy relations between employer and employee should result in a noble deed of this kind.

AN ECONOMIC NECESSITY.

(Christian Science Monitor)
Frequent have been the warnings given to people of Europe and America against overindulgence in extravagance at a time when frugality and industry are necessary to restore the nations of the world to normal conditions. One of the latest of these comes from Paul M. Warburg, one of the leading authorities on finance in the United States. Mr. Warburg arrived home the other day from a three months' stay in Europe, where he had made a study of financial and industrial conditions. Speaking of the recklessness in the expenditure of money, both in Europe and the United States, he said: "A willingness to subordinate scientific and business necessities to the greater advantage of the country, splendidly manifested during the present reaction—an orgy of brazen self-indulgence at the very moment when the bill is presented for payment. The world is living in a fool's paradise, based upon fictitious wealth, rash promises, and mad illusions."

This may seem to be a strong language, coming as it does from one who has long been considered a conservative, far-sighted financier, but his statement bears out the report of other banking authorities who have made an analysis of European and American economic conditions. Never was there greater opportunity for the people of the United States to render a world service than right now. This can best be done by rigid economies and greater production.

The European countries are very much in need of credits and raw materials. By supplying these the people of the United States can not only be rendering invaluable assistance to the Europeans, but doing themselves a service that cannot be computed in money.

How the U. S. Bureau of Standards tests Automobile Oils

Do you know the greatest weakness of ordinary automobile oils? Do you know the chief cause of wear and expense? Do you know how the U. S. Bureau of Standards tests automobile oils—what tests this Bureau considers most important?

You will find the answers to these questions in the U. S. Bureau of Standards Technologic Paper No. 73—"Data on the Oxidation of Automobile Cylinder Oils." (Address, Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C.) This explains how motor oil is tested for sediment—the same famous test that has shown how Veedol reduces friction and wear, by reducing sediment.

Veedol is made by the special and exclusive Faulkner Process, that causes it to resist heat, and reduces sediment 80 per cent. That means less friction, less wear on your engine, less oil expense.

103 BODIES ARE BROUGHT TO U. S.

Yank Heroes Who Died In Archangel District Are Brought Home—Impressive Ceremony Honors Soldiers.

New York, Nov. 14.—In the chill of a November rain, the nation accorded honors yesterday to the first of its heroic dead brought back from world war battle fields.

On a flag, decked, crepe-draped army pier in Hoboken the bodies of 103 American soldiers who gave up their lives in northern Russia and of 10 sailors who died with the navy's forces into "farthest north" waters received their benediction.

Moral tributes and a representation from the Russian embassy acknowledged gratitude to the American soldiers who fell in Russia in the cause of humanity.

While rain patted on the pier shed, the services began with "Lead Kindly Light" played by the Thirteenth infantry band and the reading of the 23rd psalm—"The Lord is My Shepherd."

The United States Senator Wadsworth of New York voiced the official welcome home to the first company of our dead, most triumphant in their home coming than those regiments, battalions and companies of the living we have seen marching through our streets.

EXPRESSES A DESIRE TO AID MANY FRIENDS

Well-Known Ironton Woman Says She'll Urge Them To Try Trutona.

Ironton, Ohio, Nov. 13.—"I honestly think that Trutona is a wonderful medicine and I can recommend it to all of my friends who are suffering from troubles like mine," Mrs. C. Smith, 421 North Second street, said recently. Mrs. Smith, who is 62 years old, has lived in Ironton for the past forty-two years and is well known here.

"My principal ailment was stomach trouble from which I have suffered a number of years," Mrs. Smith said. "My appetite was poor and the little I ate always resulted in my experiencing a heavy bloated feeling in my stomach. I often had the headache and was usually constipated. I had become so nervous I couldn't sleep at night. I tried many different medicines but they didn't seem to help me."

"But that was before I found Trutona. I had been using Trutona only a few days when I noticed an improvement in my condition. Now, I can eat most anything without having trouble with my stomach afterwards. The heavy, bloated feeling has ceased to follow my meals. My constitution has been relieved and the headaches formerly experienced are things of the past. My food seems to taste better, too, and I'm at last able to sleep well at night."

Trutona, the perfect tonic, is now being introduced and explained in Newark at Birman's Arcade Drug Store.—Adv.

EARLY BUILDING FOR SUCCESS

Youth's Wise Employment of Leisure Hours Means Everything in His After Life.

If the young man could only assimilate very early in his life the fact that merely to live and eat and drink and sleep, and then die, is not enough, but that he must rob himself of many of the pleasures usually taken up by young men if he means to make his life of the highest possible use to the world, he would set his foot on the pathway to accomplish something worth while.

There is no harm in billiards or pool or in dancing, baseball or card-playing, or any one of the scores of different diversions and recreations open to young men. The natural inclination usually is to devote a large part of the leisure hours of young manhood to such pleasures. But the youth who is really earnest in his ambition to do something worth while will discipline himself to resist such temptations during his early, formative years, for the whole fate of a man is largely determined by how he utilizes his plastic years. He may be restricted by circumstances, by environment, by family ties in his selection of his daily work, but every young man, particularly nowadays, has many hours that he can call his own, and it is how he chooses to use these hours that counts most and tells most.—Forbes Magazine.

SOMETHING MORE THAN PLAY

Crippled Soldier Pleasantly Surprised at Result of Work at Which He Amused Himself.

How a ring got a wounded soldier a new occupation in life is told by the federal board for vocational education, which is helping the handicapped men of the army, navy and marine corps get back into the workaday world.

A veteran of Belleau wood called upon the board. His left leg gone, he appeared listless and without hope. He sat talking to the adviser, now and then slowly turning a ring on his finger. The adviser, to get the man's confidence, asked to see the ring.

The man suddenly became animated. "I made that," he said. "Hammered it out of silver myself, and engraved those figures on the outside. Nothing but some playing of mine," he added. The adviser looked at the ring, noted the engraving, and said:

"How would you like to learn engraving?"

"Doing this?" said the soldier, fingering his ring. "Say, this ain't work—it's just play."

"Let's have a try at it," replied the adviser.

The federal board sent the man to learn engraving, and in a few months he qualified for a good job in a jewelry store.

Chinese College Girls.

The most picturesque school in Nanjing is Ginting college, a recently opened institution, operated by five boards, presided over by a faculty of eight and including 18 girls. As this is only the second year of operation, 18 is a goodly number. Last year there were hardly enough girls to go around. The college is housed for the present in a charming old "gong wan" or official residence belonging to the estate of Li Hung Chang, and once occupied by one of his relatives. For Chinese women to come into such an inheritance, even by renting it, is enough to make anyone enthusiastic. Only two years of college work are done at present, but a year's work is being added over autumn, so that it will soon tax the eight teachers to keep the class work up to the high standard that has been decided upon.—Christian Herald.

Rigorous Mourning.

"Germany's week of mourning over the harshness of our peace terms was rigorously observed—nit," said Major Frederick Palmer, the famous war correspondent.

"There's a story about the week of mourning from Berlin. A Berlinese assistant theater manager said to the manager:

"Is our burlesque going to observe the week of mourning, boss?"

"Rigorously, sir, rigorously," the boss replied.

"Close down—is that the idea?" said the assistant.

"Close down nothing," said the boss. "We'll put all the chorus girls in black silk stockings."

To Keep Castaways Dry.

Louis O. Anderson has invented a "storm cover" for boats which, when adjusted, covers both boat and rower so completely that waves and rain will roll off it as water rolls off a duck's back. The suit, which includes a headpiece, is made full at its juncture with the rubberized cover, says the Popular Science Monthly, so that the oarsman may try to paddle with one of the oars while sitting in the stern with the tail spread out behind him. His other oar makes a backbone for the cover.

No Problem at All.

A small boy was sent to the local drug store for an empty bottle, and after waiting his turn the assistant spotted him and said: "Well, little man, what can I do for you?"

"Oh, I want an empty medicine bottle," the boy replied.

"I can't let you have one without something in it," said the assistant.

To which the little hopeful shyly answered: "I suppose it is merely red tape, so shove us a cork in."

FARMER CUTS 60 SHOCKS OF CORN

Pretty good for a man who gave up his trade as blacksmith on account of rheumatism and went to farming.

Says he could not have done this except for the great good Dreco did him, by overcoming his troubles.

"I cut 60 shocks of corn alone yesterday, which is pretty good. I think for a man like me who had to quit his trade as a blacksmith and go to the farm because rheumatism had the best of him," declared Mr. Stephen Fiedler of Route 2, Chillicothe, O. "I had rheumatism all through my body; an my arms, shoulders, back, limbs, knees and feet. I was simply up against it and no one knows how I suffered. I couldn't sleep from the pain; my appetite fell off; my stomach got in bad and my liver was so sluggish that I often had dizzy spells. My whole system was run down and weak. I am happy to state that I am in better shape today than in many months and I give the credit to Dreco, that Great Root and Herb medicine. Dreco acted on my kidneys and helped my rheumatism very much. The pains are gone from my joints and I can sleep and eat as I used to. My liver has been cleaned off nicely so that I don't have headaches nor dizzy spells now. I feel fine doing the work on the farm and getting stronger every day. I expect to take several more bottles of Dreco just to make sure."

The good old-fashioned roots, herbs, barks and leaves, like our forefathers brewed their teas and raised a hardy race of people, are still recognized as the best remedies for the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and blood. Dreco is made from twelve herbal plants and its action is pleasant for man, woman or child.

All modern druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Newark by Evans' Cut Rate Drug Store.—UADV.

Taking Health To the North Via the Fresh Air Routes

One would not think the Esquimaux would be tuberculous. But tuberculosis will find a way to reach anywhere, and the pupils of Public School 60, way up in the north, have learned to do their studying out of doors, so that when they become men and women, they will be able to laugh at the ravaging of the Great White Plague. The winter costume is comfortable even with the heavy fur cap and the heavier fur coat. The children of the nation are its greatest assets. They make future statesmen and future hawks of success, but every year tuberculosis kills 12,000 of them. They are easily infected with the disease and it is estimated that 7 per cent. of all infection from tuberculosis comes to children under 10 years old. The Red Cross Christmas Seal is the protector of children. By its influence the youngsters of the country can and are being saved. The country is to have opportunity to purchase and use these Red Cross Seals at Christmas time this year. They will cost one penny, but the money obtained will be used to fight tuberculosis at every angle.

Beauty in Housework.

Sweeping is the best exercise in the world for an exercise for health and beauty and as a vitalizer of the whole system. To gain the most benefit from this beauty exercise the shoulders should be well thrown back and the hands should grasp the broom, firmly. With each stroke, the whole body should sway, which movement will add grace to the figure. In fact, in performing housework, one may so direct their efforts that the labor becomes a body builder and, besides, one will have the satisfaction of knowing that the home is spick and span.

It is quite true that tight lacing of the waist is responsible for many cases of indigestion in women. The necessity for tight lacing has brought about an ill proportioned body, usually due to neglect or over-indulgence. The stomach rebels at being confined when performing the labors of the house work, and announces its displeasure by not taking care of the food consumed, which results in discomfort, and, eventually, in indigestion.

Housework may here be utilized to such a degree that tight lacing will be unnecessary. For instance, how often does the housewife find it necessary to pick up articles from the floor? If, instead of lowering the body, as most women do, by squatting, she would lean forward from the waist and at the same time keep the knees from bending, the movement would act directly on the muscles of the waist and hips.

Our Boys and Girls

A child can be taught the way to the savings bank easily enough when he is receiving a certain sum per week or month, and there is no harm in teaching his feet that road very early in life. Let him get an understanding of the value of compound interest, and feel that by exerting self sacrifice he is adding to the return of his labor. There is no need to be too arbitrary as to these savings.

Begin by encouraging him to put something of what he gets aside for a definite purpose, a bicycle, a pair of skis, a tool chest or wireless outfit or canoe or any special craving he may have. It is the habit of saving you want to establish, not the piling up of any specified sum. Before long he will be pretty sure to take an interest in the account itself, and will not want to draw it all out.

A chiffonier for baby's clothes was made by the handy man of the house. It was small, yet large enough to be of great use to mother. There were three small drawers for the baby's clothes, and on top were kept the baby's basket and toilet articles. The piece of furniture was painted white and was a great addition to the room.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM

Bushman and Bayne.

Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, opened at the Auditorium yesterday in "Daring Hearts," a Vitagraph feature and drew fairly good crowds. It will be screened both today and tomorrow together with the Pathe News full of latest World Events. In the cast besides the star in "Daring Hearts" are seen: L. Rogers Lytton, Karl Dane, Jean Paige, Arthur Donaldson, George Des Lyane and others.

Marguerite Clark.

One of the outstanding features of Manager Fenberg's picture programme at his house this season will be the presentation at the Auditorium theater next Sunday of Marguerite Clark's latest Paramount photoplay, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." The rights to pictureize this famous story were obtained by the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation at great expense, but the superiority of the production attests fully to the wisdom of the selection. The homely humor and the unusual heart interest made it one of the most successful plays in many seasons and following its run in New York it enjoyed equal popularity on the road.

Fiddlers Three.

"Fiddlers Three" that will be seen at the Auditorium theater next Tuesday night is a musical comedy with a romantic plot composed of an interesting story alive with situations comic and compelling. The tuneful musical numbers are introduced with real reason are happily invested with the popular touch which makes them really remembered airs.

John Cort, the producer, has brought together a cast of merit and excellence. Best of all there is a prima donna, Tavia Belge, who can sing the big numbers with an ease and grace such as we have not seen on the musical comedy stage in recent years. The comedy end of the play is well to the fore in the presence of Tom Dingle, a comedian and dancer of comic without a peer. Edna Morn, who has also danced herself into the good graces of the public, Thomas Conkey, already known to music lovers on account of his excellent baritone voice, Kathrin Ward, Joseph Miller, Ethel Dryer, Leo Frankel and Layman and Kline, with their whirlwind dances, make up a cast that merits attention. Mr. Cort has been will include many new people this season, including some of the best known singers, dancers and comedians on the stage today.

The show this season is entirely new, and different from that ever before given by this splendid company. It is not a burlesque show, but a high class musical comedy, produced and written by colored artists, and with elaborate stage settings and beautiful costumes, while the bronze chorus is worth seeing as well as hearing. Seats on sale Saturday.

ALHAMBRA

Pauline Frederick.

Pauline Frederick's finest cinema achievement is found in her new Goldwyn picture, "The Fear Woman." This picture is a brilliant example of the new order of art photoplay production. Not only is the play vivid, absorbing, compelling—a human document of remarkable fidelity to life—but Pauline Frederick herself declares that never before has she been enabled so fully to express tragic emotions, nor to be so freely herself with such satisfying results on the screen. She is essentially a new Pauline Frederick.

PAULINE FREDERICK in "The Fear Woman"

Besides narrating an appealing story which steadily mounts to a tremendous climax, "The Fear Woman" abounds in pictorial beauty. No less than 32 superb interior settings are enjoyed in the course of the drama and the star is seen in 23 distinct changes of costume. Photographically the play sets a new standard in Goldwyn Pictures; and these merits, coupled with the artistry of a faultless cast, all promise unusual enjoyment to Pauline Frederick's nation-wide legion of admirers. Goldwyn announces "The Fear Woman" for presentation at the Alhambra theater beginning today.

Prizma Pictures.

These clever Prizma single reel features, at one time a feature at Mgr. Fenberg's Alhambra are back again and will be seen every Friday and Saturday in connection with the usual features for these days. They are starting today.

Monroe Salisbury.

RED BLOOD MAKES BEST COMPLEXIONS

Wholesome Complexion the Pride and Glory of Healthy Men and Women

Pepto-Mangan Makes Red Cheeks

Builds Up Tired Bodies—Helps Change Pale Complexions to Bloom of Health

The healthy, attractive woman—and man too—with a wholesome complexion is the envy of those who feel that, for them, such attractiveness is impossible.

And yet health and attractiveness are much a matter of good, red blood and unless a man or woman is afflicted with some deep-seated or serious ailment, vigorous health, and personal charm are within easy reach.

Pepto-Mangan is responsible for the present health and happiness of thousands who formerly were thin, pale, languid and easily exhausted. Pepto-Mangan helped place these folks in the full-blooded, energetic, vigorous class—and it probably can do the same for you.

Pepto-Mangan contains the elements that make rich, healthy blood. And as a result of the increased supply of red blood that Pepto-Mangan creates, the entire system attains the vigor that belongs to every man and woman.

Pepto-Mangan is prepared in two forms, liquid and tablets. They are exactly alike in medicinal value. Ask your druggist for "Gude's" when ordering Pepto-Mangan. Look for the name "Gude's" on the package.—Adv.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Pepto-Mangan (double strength), and add to it 3-4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Adv.

ARRANGE DATES FOR TEAM DRILL

Teams in New Y Basketball League Arrange to Practice in High School Gymnasium Next Week.

The athletic council of the plant service committees is made up of the following: Clyde Wheeler, E. V. Westfall, E. Canfield, Geo. Smeltz, G. A. Hagerstrand and A. Happte. The athletic council will pilot the new industrial basketball league that opens the winter basketball season Tuesday night, November 25.

At the meeting Wednesday night at the Y. M. C. A., the teams decided on their colors. The Halsey team has white and blue; American Bottle company, white and green; Burke Golf company, gold and blue; B. and O., blue and grey; Holophane company, scarlet and white; American Motor Truck, red, white and blue. Several other teams are yet to be heard from.

As next Tuesday and Thursday night the High gym is open, the teams will each have one hour exclusive practice. Tuesday, Nov. 18, from 8 to 7, the American Bottle team will use the floor. From 7 to 8, Halseys, from 8 to 9, B. and O. Thursday night, Nov. 20, from 8 to 7, American Motor, 7 to 9, Holophane, 8 to 9, Burke Golf.

Just as soon as the rest of the factories state definitely their abilities to get a team, the league schedule will be made up and published. The first factory family night will be held by the Burke Golf company on Friday night, December 5. Judging from the big turnout they had last spring, the program this fall should be a most successful one. The Burke service committee is already lining up its talented employees and members of their families for the big affair. The other plants are being looked over by their service committee and some big times are being planned for old Taylor hall at the Y. M. C. A.

WISCONSIN SOCIALISTS NOMINATE VIC BERGER

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 14.—Socialists of the fifth Wisconsin congressional district have nominated Victor L. Berger as the party candidate at the special election, December 19 to fill the vacancy caused by the house of representatives refusing to accept on his certificate of election obtained a year ago.

While the method of nominating Socialists candidates is by referendum, it is explained that the party caused the calling of the mass meeting to nominate. It is said that the nomination was by a unanimous vote.

TENANTS REFUSE TO PAY HIGHER RENTS

Cleveland, Nov. 14.—A strike of tenants as a means of curbing rent profiteering became a reality yesterday when, following a meeting last night, more than a hundred and fifty apartment dwellers in the Cleveland area agreed to refuse to pay rent increases demanded by their landlord. The "strikers" are members of the Cleveland Tenants League, organized recently after they learned that their claim, had ordered $5 and $10 per month increase in their rents.

ARREST MINER WHO BOUGHT DUM-DUMS

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 14.—W. L. Duff, a Cuban Creek coal miner, to whom had been shipped the arms and ammunition seized yesterday at Daves, W. Va., by order of Governor Cornwell, was arrested at Miami, W. Va., yesterday. Duff, who was taken on an executive warrant, is charged with "conspiring against the state." It was said at the governor's office.

HOTEL MAN TO TEST VALIDITY OF NEW LAW

Columbus, Nov. 14.—A suit challenging validity of Ohio's new hotel and restaurant license law was filed in the Franklin county courts yesterday by Foster G. Burdell, manager of the Normandy hotel. Burdell is against state Fire Marshal T. Alfred Fleming who has charge of its enforcement.

MOST OF OHIO COAL MINERS ARE IDLE

Columbus, Nov. 14.—Without notable exception the coal mining situation in Ohio remained unchanged today with most of the 40,000 Ohio coal miners remaining out, according to available reports to operators and United Mine Workers' headquarters. That the miners prefer continuing on strike pending results of the conference between the operators and miners' officials at Washington was the opinion of both operators and union headquarters in this city.

WIFE KILLED WHEN CAR GOES OVER BANK

Mt. Orab, Ohio, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Margaret Sanders, 45 years old was killed instantly and her husband, Leonard Sanders 50 years old, garage proprietor of Mt. Orab was injured severely last night when an automobile Sanders was driving plunged down an embankment at the approach to the bridge four miles north of Mt. Orab. Three years ago Sanders was acquitted on a charge of murder, following the shooting of a man named Wahl.

LITTLE INCREASE IN PRODUCTION OF COAL

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Only slight increase in the amount of bituminous coal produced throughout the country was in prospect today. The miners generally showed a disposition to await developments of the meeting today at Washington of miners and operators called by Secretary of Labor Wilson to negotiate a new wage scale.

In some states, notably Illinois and West Virginia, it was said that threatened trouble by radicals or "insurgents" among the miners had complicated the situation brought about by the lack of a desire on the part of the workers to resume production in response to the strike recall message. Miners in the Springfield, Illinois sub district speaking what they said was the position of the entire Illinois membership, said there would not be any coal mined until after the miners operators' conference reached an agreement.

In West Virginia, reluctance of the miners to return to work, especially in the northern districts, was attributed largely to machination of I. W. W. and other radical agitators.

In the general summary of the situation, optimistic statements regarding resumption of fuel production were received overnight only from Colorado. A number of independent mines there were reported to have started operations yesterday for the first time since the strike was called two weeks ago.

Here and there operators were hopeful that some of the approximately 425,000 men who walked out would return to work pending the settlement of the misunderstanding but the majority apparently viewed the outlook with pessimism.

MINERS ASK PROOF OF GOVTS' GOOD FAITH

Indianapolis, Nov. 14.—The coal miners of the United States expect "a demonstration of good faith on the part of the government during the negotiations at Washington," declared John T. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, shortly before boarding a train today for Washington to participate in the conference between mine operators and miners at the invitation of Secretary of Labor Wilson.

ORDERS ARREST OF ALL I. W. W. IN NEBRASKA

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 14.—All county attorneys in Nebraska are requested by Governor Samuel R. McKelvie in letters mailed to them yesterday, to cause the arrests of members of the I. W. W. who he said were scattered throughout the construction camps and among industrial workers of the state "for the specific purpose of carrying on propaganda of I. W. W. 'ism' which is revolutionary industrial unionism and embraces forceful opposition to the law."

I. W. W. PRISONERS ADMIT HAVING GUNS

Centraha, Wash., Nov. 14.—"Jack" Curtis, Centraha barber and his son, Cecil Curtis arrested here yesterday have confessed, officials said that they were on Seminary Hill while riflemen, posted on the hill poured bullets into the Armistice day parade here Tuesday. The two said they were armed but claimed they did no shooting. Both carried I. W. W. cards, officials said.

BIG BOMBING PLANE STARTS LONG TRIP

Minneapolis, N. Y., Nov. 14.—Vice Admiral Karl Kerr's giant Handley-Page bombing plane took the air from Mitchell Field shortly after 7 o'clock this morning for a non stop flight to Chicago. The plane carried eight passengers and 3000 pounds of express for the American Railway Express company. Vice Admiral Kerr expected the trip to take about 10 hours.

SPOKANE POLICE HOLD 74 I. W. W. AFTER RAID

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 14.—Seventy-four alleged members of the Industrial Workers of the World were arrested in a police raid yesterday in a hall here said to have been an I. W. W. meeting place.

LIBERTY BONDS DOWN.
New York, Nov. 14.—Vigorous trading in Liberty loan bonds in the local market yesterday brought new low prices for the fourth 14 loan, which was quoted at $92.70, with Victory 13-14 at $99.90. Weakness in these bonds is attributed to selling by individuals to obtain cash with which to protect margins in stock accounts.

Middle Aged Women

Women should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, shortness of breath, excessive nervousness, irritability, and the blues—which indicate the approach of the inevitable "Change" that comes to all women nearing middle age. We have published volumes of proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the greatest aid women can have during this trying period.

Read About These Two Women:
Fremont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run-down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."—Mrs. M. GORDON, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and your Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life."—Mrs. FRANK HANSON, 1316 South Orchard Street, Urbana, Ill.

WHY HE QUIT "THE ROAD"

Ex-Drummer Voices Regret for the Disappearance of Oldtime Bohl, face and Clerk.

"Oh for the old-fashioned hotel clerk, smiling, accommodating, always friendly, who never forgot a face, obliging and always making a fellow feel like he was at home," said Frank Whittell of Portland, Ore., according to the El Paso Herald. "What a difference between the old professional hotel clerk of 25 years ago, even up to 15 years ago, and the automatic, mechanical clerk who never try to oblige—I might call them automatic grouchers—of the present day behind the hotel registers. If you ask one of them a question he or she, nowadays, intimates that you get your room and meals, just exactly what you pay for, and not a thing more, please understand that. I was a commercial traveler for a quarter century up to six years ago, and I know. Why, we old drummers, as they used to call us, felt at home in those old hostleries of the western states, just on account of the clerks. Say, they were God's noblemen, those old-timers. They seemed to anticipate a fellow's wants and would go to all sorts of trouble to accommodate one. The milk of human kindness flowed in their hearts. And it made business, too. I have stopped at an inferior house, many a time, because I had been treated so well by the clerk. And I can say, too, the proprietors were much the same way in those days. Hotels were made homelike, not a big box with compartments, where you are to be tucked away at so much per. That was one of the reasons I quit the road, the chilly, purely mechanical hotels of the present day."

CANNOT BE TAKEN ALIVE

Gorillas Will Fight to the Death, and Are to Be Feared, Even When Mortally Wounded.

The most perilous job that any one can undertake in the jungle is the capture of a full-grown gorilla. It is said that no gorilla has ever been captured alive after he was full grown. He would be a bold man who would attempt such a feat. Gorillas fear nothing. Even when mortally wounded they show an agility, strength and ferocity which is astonishing. A famous traveler once stated that it would take 150 men to hold down a gorilla with any degree of safety.

On the other hand, all other apes are said to be pathetically easy to capture. The usual method is for a trapper to seat himself where he is certain to be observed by these creatures and pretend to drink from a bottle of crude spirits. When he is sure that he has been observed, he leaves the bottle and goes away.

The moment his back is turned the monkeys rush to appease their curiosity concerning the contents of the bottle. They like the taste of the spirits, and quarrel among themselves for it (all the bottle has been emptied). They are soon overcome by the intoxicant, and the trapper returns and gathers them in.

Change of Fashion.

Indeed, so completely have fashions and materials changed in a century that the articles included in the following advertisement of goods to be sold on Fishbourne's wharf, "back of Mrs. Fishbourne's dwelling," have scarcely any meaning for us. Among the numerous articles to be disposed of were: "Tandems, singhams, nuns, bag and gullish shirtings, huckabacks, quilted hump-hums, turkietes, grassettos, single allopeens, children's jumps and bodice, whalebone and iron husks, men's Newmarket caps, alibianes, dlekmansoy, ensbloes, chuchloes, cutnees, crimson dannerd, chained soosces, lemonees, byrampants, moree, maffermuny, saxlingham, pruneloe, barragons," etc.

Hump-hums was a sort of towel made of coarse Indian cotton cloth; cutnnee a kind of piece goods of silk and cotton, also imported from India; barragons is the barracan of today, a fabric made of camel's hair, used widely in the Levant for robes and mantles; but for the most part the articles named in the advertisement have long become obsolete.

Length of Arms and Legs.

According to many measurements made at the Anthropological laboratory in London, the right arm in human beings is in a majority of cases longer than the left arm, while, on the contrary, the left leg is longer than the right leg.

Sometimes, however, the relative proportions are exactly reversed but seldom does perfect equality exist between the two sides. The tendency of the right arm to exceed the left arm in strength is sometimes greater in men than in women, while equality of strength in the two arms occurs almost twice as frequently with women as with men.

Time to Reform.

The sailor, returning a trifle fuddled from a peace celebration, found his hitherto respected and respectable ship newly camouflaged in the most modern cubist style.

Running his eye over the whole mess of conflicting squares, triangles, lines, circles and sundry other nameless blobs of paint, which graced the sides of his "home," and blinking stupidly at the hideous screaming color scheme, he slowly raised his hand while the tears coursed down his cheeks and murmured, wearily: "Never again!"

Collective bargaining is in danger of becoming collective dictation.

Why Coal Strike Failed Told by Men "On the Spot"

Every worker employed in industries which use coal, every householder who must shield his family from the rigors of the coming winter, every farmer who depends upon the railroads for the transportation of his products is concerned in the outcome of the coal strike. For that reason The Literary Digest telegraphed the editors of the leading newspapers in the principal soft-coal districts of Illinois, Central and Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Tennessee for their predictions of what the end of the coal strike will be. Because these men are in close contact with actual conditions in their respective localities and can be assumed to have a definite knowledge of local public opinion regarding the strike, their views should be authoritative. Their answers to the "Digest's" request for information are incorporated in the leading article of this publication dated November 15th, and it is sure to enlighten the American public. The article is well illustrated with an original photograph and several pertinent cartoons.

Some of the other articles of more than ordinary interest in the "Digest" for November 15th are:

First Dolls.

The first dolls of which there is any knowledge were found among the treasures unearthed from the ruins of Babylon. They were small figures in terra cotta and ivory, beautifully carved and must have been fascinating playthings for little Assyrian children. The little girls of Syria had mechanical dolls. The dolls the classic children played with were made of wax and clay, decorated with bright colors. As these children married very young, they played with their dolls until just before their wedding day.

Lenine and Trotzky are still holding on. It may be some time yet before the Russians take Russia.—Charleston News and Courier.

Explaining Geysers.

In a word, the whole secret of the intermittent geyser lies in a subterranean reservoir, the contents of which are forced out by steam expansion every time it gets filled up. The Yellowstone park is a region which not so very long ago was fiercely volcanic. In that role it has ceased to play an alarming part, but locally the earth's crust is extremely thin. A very literal hell rages not far beneath the places frequented by tourists, and thence is derived the heat that causes the outbursts of the geysers.

We are rapidly approaching a situation where it will no longer be possible for us to say that Europe has gone crazy.—Milwaukee Journal.

14 MILLION SHORT ON WIRE CONTROL

Government Has Deficit to Show For Year and a Half of Government Operation.

Washington, Nov. 14.—War time operation of the telephone and telegraph system of the country cost the federal government $14,418,237, according to a report of Postmaster General Burleson transmitted to congress yesterday by President Wilson. This sum represents the difference between the net earnings of the companies taken over and the compensation guaranteed by the government.

Total net earnings of the telephone and telegraphic lines during federal control were reported at $70,437,532 while the compensation assured was $84,855,769. The total deficit included an estimated $3,000,000 for settlement of future claims. Small independent operators by the government reported a surplus of $57,428.

Reported deficits of the American Telephone and Telegraph company operating 36 subsidiary companies, were $9,290,170.31 while the Western Union Telegraph company asked and adjustment of $921,511. The Ohio State Telephone company of Columbus operating four subsidiary companies showed a deficit of $329,123.

GREAT EXPONENT OF LIBERTY

Simon de Montfort, Earl of Leicester, Known as "Father of English House of Commons."

The first great democrat in England was Simon de Montfort, earl of Leicester, who was slain in battle 654 years ago as the leader of the rebellious barons. Simon de Montfort was also the spokesman for the great masses of the people, and he held that it was the duty of the nobles to stand between the people and the monarch as guardians of their liberties, to watch over the exercise of the royal power and prevent its abuse. In the great battle of Lewes in 1264 the barons, under the command of de Montfort, completely defeated the king and the royalist party. In the battle of Evesham on August 4 of the following year the tables were turned and the democratic earl was killed and the barons sustained a ruinous defeat. During the brief period of Simon's ascendancy, however, he had laid the foundation for the house of commons and had inspired in the breasts of the people a devotion to liberty and democracy never to be stamped out by royal oppression. "Every king is ruled by the laws," declared Simon de Montfort, and he held that the "generality" should have a hand in the making of the laws by which they, as well as the monarch, were to be governed.

Simon de Montfort's immortal place in history is indicated by the reverent title historians have given him—"the Father of the English House of Commons."

GREEKS HAD FORM OF TENNIS

That the Game is an Old One is Sure, but its Origin is Hard to Trace.

Discussion of possible changes in the terminology of tennis naturally includes the name itself, and here there are many possible origins. The game, in one form or another, is very old. The Greeks knocked a ball back and forth and called the exercise "phenix" for which the Roman name was "teniludum." "Phennis" and "teniludum" were ancestors probably of the similar French sport in the middle ages, and modern tennis may, for that matter, have been named from the province of Tennes, where this game was exceedingly popular. Possibly, but improbably, the name is derived from the French "tenuez" in the sense of "get ready." "Deuce" is generally accepted as another form of the French "deux," but "racquets" has several possible sources, the most likely perhaps being the old medieval word "rachte," meaning the palm of the hand, when the game was played like modern handball. Chaucer and Shakespeare both knew the game in England, and whether or not they played it, had doubtless looked on with satisfaction, as did Queen Elizabeth.

Would Seem to Be His Right.

A suggestion has been made that if the British flag is to be again unfurled above Helgoland, Henry Hedger, vergar of the parish at Herne Bay, Kent, Eng., be engaged to raise the emblem. He it was who hauled down the Union Jack August 9, 1890, when the island passed into the control of the German empire. He was then a coast guardsman, and is now a vigorous man of between 60 and 70 years. Mrs. Hedger recalls her four years on the island chiefly by the birth of their youngest son, who grew up to be one of the contemptibles, who helped to hinder Prussia's march through France, but fell in the attempt. The family left the island the day it was taken out of British control, and while the pier was decorated with flags and bunting prior to the visit of the kaiser. All the British official population left at the same time.

World's Lepers.

The American secretary for the Mission of Lepers estimates that there are not fewer than 2,000,000 lepers in the world, 8,000 of whom have been converted to Christianity. Apropos of this, the Hawaiian legislature has just offered to pension Bro. Joseph Dutton, who succeeded Father Damien at the leper settlement on Molokai. Brother Dutton has not been off the leper island for 33 years and has spent $10,000 of his own money to relieve the poor creatures among whom he lives. But he refused the pension, wishing no reward and expecting to work on to the end in the cause to which he long ago devoted his life. The world has heroes of whom it rarely hears; and it cannot be otherwise than that such self-sacrifice must win a higher reward than governments or the plaudits of peoples can confer.

National Redwood Park. A movement is on foot in California to turn the redwood forests of that state into a great national memorial park to serve as a monument to the American war heroes. Those behind the proposal feel that there are many elements of deep and appealing interest in the proposition. As many of these giant trees were old when what the world calls civilization was young it is felt that these trees of the ages belong not exclusively to any state nation, or people, but are the heritage of the race and should be preserved for the recreation and pleasure of all the peoples of the earth. An additional argument in favor of establishing the National Redwood park is that its establishment would at once constitute a great and much-needed constructive work of national conservation.

THE HOUSEWIFE—

Experiences of Ohio Women

Findlay, Ohio:—"My experience with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription during expectancy has been all that could be desired. I was so weak and sickly that I could scarcely do my own housework for months before my second child came, and I was nauseated all the time until I started to take 'Favorite Prescription.' The first bottle gave me so much comfort and strength that I decided to continue its use through the entire period. My baby weighed ten pounds and I had practically no suffering, was ill only a little over an hour. This was so entirely different from my first experience that I would never dare go thru expectancy without the aid of 'Favorite Prescription.'—Mrs. OREAN RADABAUGH, 516 South St.

Bryan, Ohio:—"I consider Dr. Pierce's medicines of the very best. I have taken the 'Favorite Prescription' as a special tonic when I was run-down and it was excellent, giving perfect satisfaction. And during the time that my children were sick I relied a great deal on Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser for advice when they would become sick, and it saved many spells of sickness in my family and doctor bills, too."—Mrs. HARRIET EASTERLY.

Conneaut, Ohio:—"I have the greatest faith in Dr. Pierce's remedies because I took the 'Favorite Prescription' and it was only a short while before I was feeling better and eventually I was cured of my trouble for I never had a recurrence of woman's weakness afterward. I have taken 'Favorite Prescription' since, whenever I have felt the need of a special tonic, and also the 'Epsomade Salts' when in need of a laxative, and not once have I been disappointed." Mrs. FREDERICK FARM, 404 Washington St.

FIRE DESTROYS FERTILIZER PLANT

Blaze Starts While Men Are Absent at Noon-Day Meal and Burns to Ground in Short Time.

The plant of the C. O. Harris fertilizer company, southeast of Newark, was entirely destroyed by fire of unknown origin shortly after noon Thursday. The property loss is estimated at $8,000 with no insurance.

The fire originated less than a half hour after Harris and the other men employed there had left the plant to go to dinner. Before the flames were discovered practically the entire building was enveloped in flames.

Besides the buildings destroyed, new machinery, only recently installed, was completely ruined by the fire. The insurance policies were allowed to lapse during the war and because of the high rate asked by insurance companies to carry fire risk beyond fire protection, they were not renewed.

It was stated this morning that arrangements would be made at once to rebuild the plant.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS

The fellowship dinner of the City Federation of Women's clubs will be held at the First Baptist church Monday evening, November 24 at 6 o'clock. A program will be prepared and given in the Auditorium of the church following the dinner.

Mrs. F. C. Mayor was hostess to the Social Needle Workers' club at her home in North Fourth street, Thursday afternoon. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Long, 114 Wing street, December 4th.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Heil, 188 North Tenth street, surprised them in their home last night, the event being in the nature of a farewell party in view of the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Heil soon for southern California, where they will spend the winter. They will make the trip by automobile.

Their guests last night enjoyed a musical program. A lunch was served.

Mrs. W. D. Fulton entertained the members of the Harmonious club on Tuesday afternoon at her home in Union street. A two course dinner was served the members and following guests: Mrs. G. W. Boring, and Mrs. Ned Miller, of Johnston, and Mrs. C. F. Wendelken, in East Main street.

SELL BOOZE AT $75 PER CASE

Louisville Distillers Defy War Time Prohibition Law to Dispose of Million Gallons of "Floor Stock."

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 14.—Two local distillers sold whiskey openly in Louisville today at $75 a case, regardless of the war time prohibition law. Hundreds of orders, filed before July 1, when the war-time law went into effect, it was said, were being filled by these distillers, which resumed sales following the granting of an injunction to them yesterday by Federal Judge Evans, restraining the government from interfering with sale of nearly a million gallons of "floor stock" whiskey.

The Wright & Taylor and the Brown-Forman companies, which received the temporary injunction, expected to sell all of their whiskey in a hurry, it was announced. They made their sales, however, with the knowledge that they are liable to prosecution, according to District Attorney W. V. Gregory, if the federal supreme court reverses Judge Evans in a decision it is to make November 20th.

No Kentucky distillers apparently were disposed not to ask for injunctions and wait the supreme court's decision as to the war-time prohibition law's constitutionality before trying to dispose of their whiskey stocks, all of which is said to approximate 40,000,000 gallons.

The case before the supreme court was appealed to it by the government from a previous decision of Judge Evans, who held both the war-time law and the enforcement acts were unconstitutional and granted the Kentucky Distillers and Warehouse company an injunction forbidding interference by the government with sale of nearly 69,000,000 gallons of whiskey.

REINFORCED stucco is a new and lasting form of construction for houses and other buildings. In the very first introduction of stucco it became very popular, as many beautiful designs of architecture were reproduced which were otherwise impossible. Its beautiful finish made possible tints and trimmings which displayed such harmonious effects that stucco houses are now in a class by themselves.

However, the only detrimental feature of stucco work was its tendency to crack, work loose and fall away. This trouble was not due to the quality of the cement or plaster, but to the method of application and foundation. Wood laths warp, expand, contract and work loose, and therefore do not form a proper foundation for stucco. If, however, the foundation is laid with a galvanized steel wire mesh in which to imbed the cement, the walls become one unit under a solid mass of cement.

By the use of this steel fabric, the walls are woven continuously around the buildings instead of being joined together at the corners, and should a cyclone roll the house over and over, it would remain intact.

As a general rule, the cost for the materials under this method plus the installation cost is approximately 40 per cent cheaper than with ordinary painted metal laths.

Contractors who have used galvanized wire mesh reinforcement extensively, state that for ordinary house construction, two men should put on 300 square yards in a day. The cost to the contractor for the material itself, would amount to perhaps 20 or 25 cents per square yard.

For new buildings, the sheathing is covered with some soft-finished tarred building paper, and the wire mesh is applied directly over this paper. Old buildings, if in good condition, may be covered by simply stapling the fabric

THE MARKETS

Boston Wool Market.
Boston, Nov. 14.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:
"The government wool auctions have been the center of attraction here this week, although the first two sessions were business privately as well, chiefly for the half blood and fine wools. Prices for the finer grades are 20 to 25 per cent higher while medium wools are generally steady and the lower grades from good quarter bloods down are 15 to 20 per cent lower compared with June.
"The manufacturing situation is very strong and the tendency is for higher prices to be named on the finished product."

Chicago Grain Review.
Chicago, Nov. 14.—Today's corn market showed considerable strength at the opening, due to advances in New York stocks and higher quotations on hogs, but the strengthening influence failed to last. Opening prices, which ranged from 3.38 to 3.42 and May 1.27 to 1.31, were followed by a reaction to about the same as yesterday's finish.
Oats duplicated the action of corn. After opening unchanged to 1/2 cents higher including December at 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 cents, the market scored a steady gain and the undercurrent was bullish.
Turnips in the value of hogs lifted provisions. Business, though, lacked volume.

A. P. TEUSCHER INSTALLS MACHINE

For Honing and Stropping Safety Razor Blades. See it in the window at His Barber Shop, 26 W. Main.

A. P. Teuscher proprietor of the Barber Shop at 26 West Main street has installed one of the latest designed
 W. C. Helmerding Safety Razor
 Blade Honing and Stropping machines.
 This new machine is one of the latest improved on the market and is the only one of its kind in Newark. It is operated by electric motive power and its automatic operation insures the highest quality of work. It sharpens and stropps blades and puts them in many instances in better condition than they were in when purchased new. The honers are made from carefully selected natural stone, having a soft even texture and an exceedingly fine grain and the stropps are made of an especially fine grade of leather in spiral form to one half inch in thickness. Work can be executed more rapidly on this machine, than those of other kinds and it is provided with an automatic time stop which accurately measures the length of time the machine should run to complete one operation. This positive action system insures the operation which is of the utmost importance in connection with the production of accurate work. So true and so completely perfect is every part of this device that it is often referred to as being "almost human" in operation.

Mr. Teuscher has had the machine placed in the front window where it can be seen at any time. He also extends a cordial invitation to all to come and inspect the machine and the splendid work it turns out. One of the most puzzling matters that has always confronted the safety razor user is that of sharp blades. Oftentimes the new blades have through blunt and other causes become dull and have failed to give the results desired. With the aid of this new sharpener old and new blades as well can be put in first class condition, such that will prove a joy and satisfaction to the user, and at a very small outlay of money. Mr. Teuscher will sharpen your blades at 35 and 50 cents per dozen and will guarantee the service satisfactory. Bring in your blades and have them put in better condition than they were when new. It's the best way to practice economy and get service. 11-14-1f

PLAN FORUM FOR C. C. MEMBERS

Committee is Named to Determine Subjects to be Discussed and to Select Speakers.

Plans have been worked out to organize a members forum of the Chamber of Commerce. It is the purpose of this forum to allow a free and friendly discussion of the problems in which the members are interested, and thus develop interest among the members in the chamber. This will enable the member himself to benefit by the suggestions of the individual members, and generally to develop a more pronounced civic conscience. It is the purpose to have the members discuss the subjects for discussion, and to have the topics made very largely by the members.

TO SEND FOOTBALL RESULTS BY PIGEONS

Camp Sherman, Nov. 14.—Two dozen army carrier pigeons will be used to tell soldiers at Camp Sherman the quarterly results of the football games between Camp Sherman and Camp
 Taylor at Louisville tomorrow.

On order of Major General E. F.
 Glenn, camp commandant, Lieutenant
 Louisville today with the pigeons. The results of each quarter will be sent back to Camp Sherman by the pigeons. It is estimated that it will take the pigeons about two hours to make the trip.

This is said to be the first time football results ever were transmitted by carrier pigeons. Officers believe it will be splendid training for the birds and may result in an officer being detailed to carry on this work in connection with the football team hereafter.

STEPS INTO RUT; ASKS CITY TO PAY DAMAGES

Agnes F. Romine has filed a damage suit against the city of Newark in the court of common pleas, asking through her attorney, E. S. Randolph, that she be paid the sum of $5,000 damages for injuries which she alleges she sustained while participating in a parade on August 29, 1918. She states that when she was in West Main street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, she stepped in one of the numerous holes in the street and fell and broke both bones of the left arm just above the wrist.

BIRKHEAD GETS BOUT WITH DETROIT BOXER

Eddie Birkhead, local boxing manager, has matched "Battling Kid" Brown against Young Dennis, before the Detroit Athletic club, of Detroit, the bout to take place on Tuesday evening, November 25. The boys will weigh in at 155 pounds before 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Birkhead will bring his boxer to this city next week for a course of training under his personal supervision. He believes he has a real boxer in the lad and that he is fast ranking with the top notchers.

"All things are possible," quoted the Wise Guy. "Yes, it's wonderful how some people outlive their usefulness who never had any," replied the Simple Mug.

The Sword That Hangs Over Your Head

A Modern and Effective Way to Remove the Threatening Danger

Like the historic sword of Damocles—constantly threatening danger and death—are the disease germs and the poisons which enter the body with the food and lodge in the stomach and intestines. In hidden security they lie, multiplying in millions, ready and waiting to strike down their human victim.

Recognizing the ever impending danger of germs, and seeking some way to conquer them, scientists have invented many such preparations as mouth washes, dentifrices, disinfectant nose and throat sprays—but these antiseptics reach only the germs of the outside organs.

Internal Germs Deadliest
 What about the germs INSIDE the body—in the stomach and intestinal tract? They are the deadliest of all. They are millions more in number and we do not know they have struck until we come down with one of a score of ailments they cause.

To meet this newly recognized health necessity—"internal hygiene"—the remarkable antiseptic laxative, Partola, was invented. Since constipation must first be removed, Partola contains laxative properties—but it must not be confused with ordinary laxatives because the regulation of the bowels is but a part of its duty.

Health-Protecting Antiseptic
 The feature that makes Partola different and much more valuable than ordinary laxatives is its antiseptic action on the stomach and bowels. It attacks the intestinal germs, drives them out of the tiny crevices of the membranes where they lurk, and completely overcomes them. Partola thus not only sweetens the stomach, cleanses the bowels and stimulates the liver, but disinfects the digestive organs and makes them antiseptic.

Delicious as Bon-Bons
 In addition to being a remarkable laxative and systemic antiseptic, Partola is easy and pleasant to take. It comes in the form of delicious mint lozenges and has absolutely no taste of medicine. It is therefore preferred by children and grown-ups alike.

What to Eat Partola For NOTE: Two Partola candies, taken at night, act as a gentle and thorough laxative and systemic antiseptic. For a stomach corrective and digestive disinfectant—without laxative action—one-half Partola candy is sufficient.
 Thus Partola candies may be used as an internal antiseptic or as a combined laxative and antiseptic.

There is nothing "just the same" or "just as good" as Partola, so do not accept substitutes. Insist upon the genuine.

DRAPED HATS FOR YOUTHFUL FACES

The soft draped hat made of broad, velvet, duvety or fur fabrics is the favored style for winter wear. It is particularly becoming to the round youthful face and looks especially charming with luxuriant fur neckpieces or coats. The hat at the top is a Paris creation made of gold and brown broadened material. It is a soft hat with a large gold colored silk tassel forming the only trimming. Below: a brown velvet toque prettily draped with touches of gold peeping out from the folds in front.

First Overhead Trolley.

The first practical overhead trolley line was built in Kansas City in 1884, in which double overhead conductors were used with a trolley wheel riding on top of the wire. In 1885 a third-rail line was constructed in Baltimore and the Van de Poel system was installed in Toronto, Canada, and the next year in Scranton, Pa. Prior to this time experimental systems had been in use in Chicago, New York and Boston.

First Printed Book.

According to Pethgrew, the first book printed in type was the Latin Bible. It was printed by John Gutenberg at Mayence, about 1455. There are only 20 copies of this edition known to exist, and the workmanship in type, ink, and paper, were better than in any subsequent edition for two hundred years.

Value of Wrestling.

Only in Japan has the value of wrestling been universally recognized, and the result is that the average Japanese physique is unrivaled for power, agility and the internal health that so largely depends on the vitality and balanced development of the inner muscles of the lower part of the body.

Oh, Be Careful, Girls!

Girl wooed by villain. He looks all right, but he is forty, wears evening dress and his hair is thinning. Oh, can nothing be done to warn our innocent girls that an unmarried man more than thirty-five who wears evening dress and has thin hair is a moral leper? Not while picture directors have anything to say about it.—Harry Leon Wilson in the Saturday Evening Post.

KNOX TO PUSH ROAD WORK NEXT SPRING

Knox county commissioners have announced that as early as possible next spring they will sell the contract for the improvement of the six miles from the north end of the Campbell highway into Mt. Vernon. It is pointed out that Newark interests will have to get busy and push the improvement of the Newark-Litchfield road on to Utica, or the bulk of the trade of this section and the territory over the Martinsburg pike and the Homer pike will be diverted to the Knox county capital.

Rice Culture Progress.

The culture of rice is alluded to in the Talmud, and there is evidence that it was grown in the valley of the Euphrates before 400 B. C. It was taken into Persia from India, and later into Spain by the Arabs. Thence its culture was introduced into Italy about A. D. 1485.

Unworthy American Soldier.

In 1812, on the sixth of August, Detroit was surrendered by Gen. William Hull to the British, under General Brock. After Hull was released by the British he was court-martialed by the Americans, found guilty of cowardice and condemned to be shot. President Madison modified the sentence to dishonorable discharge from the army and allowed Hull to go free.

Disabled By Hun Torpedo, He Earns Higher Wages Than Ever

Of the few Philippine boys who fought under Uncle Sam, Quirino Simbulan seemed most out of luck. When the Hun U-boat got the U. S. destroyer Jacob Jones, they picked him up for dead; and three operations failed to get him back the use of knee and leg. He was of no more use as a sailor, and his old job in Manila didn't seem worth trying to get back and do. But the National Catholic War Council believes that every disabled fighter should be fitted for better work than ever before; and they have a Rehabilitation School in Washington that is proving it. They've made an expert mechanic out of Quirino, just as they have turned out thousands of such heroes—better workers than ever in their lives before.
